LIBER 21 PAUX 238

Daniel I. Wolfe, a witness of lawful age, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

- Q. Mr. Wolfe, will you state your full name and address, please.
- A. Daniel Laefie Wolfe, Myersville, Maryland, Route 1.
- Q. What is your age?
- A. I am fifty-seven.
- Q. Your occupation?
- A. I am a carpenter.
- Q. Albert C. Wolfe was your father?
- A. Yes.
- Q. And Ida Wolfe was your mother?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Both of your parents are now deceased?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Which one died last?
- A. My father?
- Q. And he died when?
- A. January 14, 1962.
- Q. You have just heard the testimony of your sister, Mrs. Nellie V. Hildebrand, concerning the members of your family. Is her testimony in this regard correct?
- A. Yes, that is correct.
- Q. You have also heard your sister's testimony with reference to the real estate which your father owned at the time of his death. Is her description of the land and improvements also correct?
- A. Yes, that is right.
- Q. Mr. Wolfe, in your opinion would it be possible to divide the real estate of which your father died seized and possessed among your several brothers and sisters, and your nephew, without loss or injury to the parties entitled?
- A. No, that would be impossible.
- Q. Is it your request that the property be sold under the jurisdiction of the Court and the proceeds divided among the several